

ANZREG Committee [elected May 2008] is:

Chair: Tony Cargnelutti (UNILINC)

Deputy Chair/Chair Elect: Simon Huggard

(State Library of Victoria)

Secretary: Helen Brownlie (University of Otago)

Committee members:

Fiona Burton (Macquarie University), IGeLU Steering
Committee, ANZREG Program Committee

Andrew Prout (National Library of New Zealand),
ANZREG Program Committee

Robyn van Ee (AUT University), ANZREG Program
Committee

The ANZREG Committee is committed to working to:

- achieve a greater inclusivity of the whole regional Ex Libris community
- maximising input/influence in the development plans for ExL products
- Grow the ANZREG community & make the annual meeting bigger and better

Membership:

- steady at ~60 institutional members – including consortia & consortia members
- 200+ individual members

Activities:

- Committee meets fortnightly
- Planning 2010 Seminar
- Established PWGs to mirror/reflect IGeLU etc...
 - Digitool: Michele Hosking
 - MetaLib/SFX: Meg Bate
 - Primo: Tom Ruthven
 - Voyager: Ebe Kartus
 - exceptions Aleph & Verde

- Continued membership of IGeLU Steering Committee...
- Lobbied successfully to have product webinars repeated for regional timezones
- Worked with ExL to have more input in key strategic developments – Primo, Primo Central & URM
 - URM – strong representation on focus groups plus role in Collaborative Partnership Program
 - Primo Central development; Primo v.3 Collaborative testing
 - Seminar attendance
- working towards better communications between ANZREG, IGeLU & ELUNA

Future:

- new committee to be elected June 2010 [2 year term]
Simon Huggard will take over as Chair then
- planning ANZREG 2011
- working towards better forms of communication and engagement between ANZREG Committee & community
- continue building effective relationships to ensure regional voice is heard & heeded

Thank you.

Tony Cargnelutti, Chair, ANZREG